

A Proclamation
Of the Mayor and City Council of Corunna, Michigan
In Remembrance of

THOSE LOST, INJURED, AND NEGATIVELY AFFECTED
BY THE ATTACKS OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

- WHEREAS, On September 11, 2001, at approximately 8:45 AM Eastern Standard Time, the United States of America was internally attacked by foreign interests, and;
- WHEREAS, This attack of terrorism was a declaration of war against the United States of America and the entire civilized world, and;
- WHEREAS, Approximately 3,000 people died as a direct result of these attacks, and further several thousands more, relatives and friends of the deceased and others, lives have been permanently altered, and;
- WHEREAS, We are the strongest and the best nation in the world, and these strengths were exemplified by the actions taken as a result of these attacks, and;
- WHEREAS, We as the City of Corunna continuously support our President, Congress, and Judicial System in the hunt for those responsible for these attacks, and will not rest in this effort until all responsible parties have been brought to justice, and;
- WHEREAS, We support this great nation in its continuing efforts to fight any and all terrorism, so that freedom, peace and tranquility will prevail.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Mayor of Corunna, and the Corunna City Council proclaim September 11, 2002, and all future September 11's, a day to remember those lost, injured, and negatively affected by the attacks of September 11, 2001; and further be it resolved to uphold the Constitution and protect the freedoms on which this Country was founded.

Proclaimed this 3rd Day of September, 2002.
